Course Licensing Information

Licensing requirements apply to this unit of competency as regulatory requirements in the NSW jurisdiction. This unit of competency supports the attainment of the basic WHS knowledge required prior to undertaking designated work tasks within any of the sectors within the construction industry.

The unit relates directly to the general induction training program specified by the National Code of Practice for Induction for Construction Work (ASCC 2007) this course is provided by St Moses The Black for students who are currently working or intending to work on construction sites in NSW. Students intending to work in other states of Australia must contact Safe Work Australia for these state jurisdictional requirements.

The RTO will also give you a statement that you can use to prove you have completed the training until your new card arrives. The statement is valid for 60 days but most cards are issued in less than 30 days. This card does not expire, however if you have not worked on a construction for 2 years or more, SafeWork NSW recommends attending a course to update your skills and knowledge.
